

God Bless the Master Masons who give us Heritage

These words are part of a prayer which every member of Job's Daughters recites at each meeting of her Bethel. Probably because of lack of adequate fraternal collaboration and other reasons there are a very limited number of Master Masons who know that this tribute of respect is paid to them.

The International Order of Job's Daughters is the only organization for girls that requires of its members a relationship to a Master Mason, while it is no part of the Masonic Fraternity, this prerequisite ties it closely to the Masonic Order.

The ritualistic work of the Order has been designed to explain the story of Job, as it is related in the Holy Book. Basically the story is this:

Throughout life from early childhood to old age, trials and tribulations are encountered, adversities of many kinds are experienced, and all that is good and worthwhile will be eventually restored if Faith prevails. The teachings of this story create a reverence for God, loyalty to the Flag, and respect for elders, and love for all the world.

But for this organization to continue, we ask the Masonic Families to assist our Bethels by providing adult leadership and by letting Bethels in your area know of any young lady between the ages of ten and twenty with a Masonic relationship.

Remember to ask the Bethels in your area to assist you in any way that they can, such as serving dinners, exemplifying part of their ritualistic work, etc. The Daughters welcome these opportunities to serve the Masonic community.

Thank you for your continue support of the International Order of Job's Daughters.
